Case 28-CA-22816

AMERICAN POSTAL WORKERS UNION, LOCAL NO. 402, AFL-CIO

DECISION AND ORDER

Statement of the Case

On May 7, 2010, the United States Postal Service (the Respondent), the American Postal Workers Union, Local No. 402, AFL-CIO (APWU Local 402), and the General Counsel of the National Labor Relations Board entered into a Formal Settlement Stipulation, subject to the Board's approval, providing for the entry of a consent order by the Board and a consent judgment by any appropriate United States Court of Appeals. The parties waived all further and other proceedings before the Board to which they may be entitled under the National Labor Relations Act, as amended, and the Board's Rules and Regulations, and the Respondent waived its right to contest the entry of a consent judgment or to receive further notice of the application therefor.

The National Labor Relations Board has delegated its authority in this proceeding to a three-member panel.

The Formal Settlement Stipulation is approved and made a part of the record, and the proceeding is transferred to and continued before the Board in Washington, D.C., for the entry of a Decision and Order pursuant to the provisions of the Formal Settlement Stipulation.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Chairman Liebman notes that the remedy to which the parties have agreed is not fully consistent with previous broad orders the Board has issued against the Respondent in cases alleging that the Respondent has violated Sec. 8(a)(5) of the Act by failing and refusing to provide relevant information. See, e.g., United States Postal Service, 28-CA-17383 et al., unpublished order issued November 4, 2002, enfd. Case 02-9587 (10th Cir. 2003); and United States Postal Service, 345 NLRB 426 (2005), enfd. 486 F.3d 683 (10th Cir. 2007). These broad orders, as enforced by the United States Courts of Appeals, remain in effect. However, because all parties have agreed to the terms of this Formal Settlement Stipulation, Chairman Liebman has determined that approval of the parties' settlement will effectuate the purposes of the Act. The Board's approval of this stipulation does not modify these orders in any respect.

Based on the Formal Settlement Stipulation and the entire record, the Board makes the following:

Findings of Fact

1. The Respondent's business

The Respondent provides postal services for the United States of America and, in the performance of that function, has operated various facilities throughout the United States, including the facilities located in Las Cruces, New Mexico, which facilities are located in the Respondent's Albuquerque District in New Mexico.

The Board has jurisdiction over the Respondent and this matter by virtue of Section 1209 of the Postal Reorganization Act, 39 U.S.C. Section 101, et seq. (PRA).

2. The labor organization involved

The American Postal Workers Union, AFL-CIO (the National Union), is a labor organization within the meaning of Section 2(5) of the Act and within the meaning of the PRA.

APWU Local 402 is a labor organization within the meaning of Section 2(5) of the Act and within the meaning of the PRA.

APWU Local 402 is a constituent local of the APWU National Union.

3. The appropriate unit

The following employees of the Respondent, referred to in the parties' collective-bargaining agreement described below, which include the Respondent's employees employed at the Respondent's Las Cruces facilities, and which is herein called the Unit, constitute a unit appropriate for the purposes of collective-bargaining within the meaning of Section 9(b) of the Act and Chapter 12 of the PRA:

All employees in the bargaining unit for which the National Union has been recognized and certified at the national level as set forth in Article 1 of the collective-bargaining agreement effective February 3, 2007, through November 20, 2010, including maintenance employees, motor vehicle employees, postal clerks, equipment shop employees, and distribution center employees; excluding all managerial and supervisory personnel, professional employees, employees engaged in personnel work in other than a purely non-confidential clerical capacity, security guards as defined in Public Law 91-375, 1202(2), all postal inspection service employees, employees in the supplemental workforce as defined in Article 7 (of the collective-bargaining agreement), rural letter carriers, mail handlers or letter carriers.

Since on or about 1971, and at all material times, the National Union has been the designated exclusive collective-bargaining representative of the Unit and since then the National Union has been recognized as the representative by the Respondent. This recognition has been embodied in successive collective-bargaining agreements, the most recent of which is effective from February 3, 2007, through November 20, 2010, herein called the Agreement.

At all material times, the National Union, based on Section 9(a) of the Act and Chapter 12 of the PRA, has been the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of the Unit.

At all material times the National Union has designated APWU Local 402 as its designee for the purpose of conducting certain of its functions as the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of the Unit, including, but not limited to, the filing and processing of grievances, and requesting information pursuant to said grievances, under the Agreement at the Respondent's Las Cruces facilities, located in the Respondent's Albuquerque District.

In the event that, during the pendency of these proceedings, the Respondent has gone out of business or closed the facilities involved in these proceedings, the Respondent shall duplicate and mail, at its own expense, a copy of the notices to all current employees and former employees employed by the Respondent at any time since December 15, 2009.
